

BOISE HUNTER HOMES

September 12, 2022

To Whom it May Concern,

We were referred to Bill and Greg by a colleague in the real estate industry. We were looking for someone to represent us in the acquisition of our new company's headquarters. Rather than a broker or listing agent, we wanted true representation. We were not disappointed. They were available and attentive to our needs.

While evaluating the cost of building from the ground up, Greg and Bill stayed alert to other opportunities. Once a great building was identified we were able to act fast and secure our new home despite competitive interest and a seller's market. We highly recommend Greg and Bill for someone looking to secure office property for their business. This is what they do!

Sincerely,

Randi Meredith
